Laurie G. Dyke, CPA/CFF, CFE, CFC

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

Laurie Dyke is owner and managing partner of the Investigative Accounting Group d/b/a IAG Forensics (IAG), a CPA firm which specializes in forensic accounting, fraud investigation and litigation support. Ms. Dyke was an auditor and consultant with Ernst & Young for approximately nine years, started and managed a consulting practice for a regional CPA firm for three years, has ten years experience as a financial executive, and started her own business in 2002. She has been qualified many times as an expert witness in forensic accounting, testified in Georgia State and Superior Courts, Federal Court, and other state courts, assisted with criminal prosecution and has served as a court-appointed auditor.

Areas of expertise include business litigation, shareholder actions, contract disputes, family law, estates and trusts, government and non-profit, insurance claims, accounting malpractice and internal fraud investigations – anything that involves complex analysis, reconciliation and re-construction of financial records. Professionals at IAG have served clients in many industries, including wholesale, retail, manufacturing, construction, real estate development, service, banking, hospitality, government, non-profit, school systems, high technology, insurance, and more.

AFFILIATIONS

Member of the American Institute of CPA's (AICPA), the Georgia Society of CPA's, (GSCPA), the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) , the American College of Forensic Examiners Institute (ACFEI), and the Collaborative Law Institute of Georgia (CLIG).

She is on the leadership committee for the Forensic and Valuation Services (FVS) Section of the GSCPA, past chair of the Family Law Division of the FVS Section (FLD), chair for 2011 and 2012 of the Joint Legal/Financial Seminar on Divorce co-sponsored by the Atlanta Bar Association Family Law Division and the FLD , Vice-Chair of the GSCPA 2010 Fraud and Forensic Conference, Chair of the GSCPA 2011 Fraud and Forensic Conference, on the Advisory Board for the Georgia Southern University Forensic Accounting Program, a designated CFF Champion for the AICPA, a member of the Cobb County Citizens Oversight Committee appointed by the Cobb County Commission, and a frequent speaker to various groups on Fraud and Forensic Accounting issues.

EDUCATION

University of California at Berkeley – B.S. in Business Administration/Accounting

LICENSES AND DESIGNATIONS

Certified Public Accountant and Certified in Financial Forensics (CPA/CFF) – AICPA; Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) – ACFE; Certified Forensic Consultant (CFC) – ACFEI; Collaborative Financial Neutral.